

You're invited to ECHO's 5th annual Taste for Prevention Wine Tasting and Auction

Friday, August 26, 2011 — 6:00-8:00 pm

Starks Building, 2nd Floor Atrium, 455 South 4th Street

Wine tasting by Jerry Rogers of Party Mart

...plus incredible hors d'oeuvres provided by Eddie Merlot's

Honorary Chairperson 2011

Dr. Alex Gerassimides, Louisville's First Lady

Mingle with our local celebrity wine pourers:

Barry Bernson – WDRB Fox 41

Scott Davenport – Bellarmine University Head Basketball Coach

Angie Fenton – The Voice-Tribune

Kevin Harned – WAVE 3

Matt Jones – Kentucky Sports Radio

Eric King – WLKY 32

Janelle MacDonald – WAVE 3

Richard Pitino – University of Louisville Assistant Basketball Coach

Rachel Platt – WHAS 11

White or Red?

Bid on exciting items at our silent and live auctions

Tickets are $50 in advance ($55 if purchased at the event).

Reserve your tickets via credit card or check by calling ECHO at 502 636-3670

RSVP by August 19, 2011

We thank our Taste for Prevention Sponsors:

Party Mart	Hardison Consulting, LLC
Eddie Merlot's	Strothman & Company, PSC
Hertz Starks Building	Carol Cobb, Asst. Commonwealth's Attorney
One Source Discovery	Fifth Third Bank
O'Bryan, Brown & Toner, PLLC	Framing Express
	Hazlett Corporate Counsel, PLLC
	Bahe Cook Cantley & Nefzger, PLC
	Dan Cann
	hess2 Design
	United Mail
	Business First

ECHO, Exploited Children's Help Organization, is a non-profit organization dedicated to reducing the incidence and impact of child victimization. Founded in 1983, ECHO is a volunteer-based organization that relies upon donations and grants to fund their great work and programs throughout the schools, courts and our community. For more information, visit the ECHO website at www.echolou.org.